The Staff, Clefs, and Ledger Lines

G A B C D E F G A

- This process continues.
- Uh-oh. We just ran out of room to place notes, what happens now?
- Ledger Lines will solve our dilemma.
- A ledger line is a small line that extends the staff when we run out of room.
- With the ledger line drawn, we can place the A.
- Next, let's discuss the Bass Clef (also called the F Clef).
- The staff line in between the two dots of the clef is F.
- We can now fill the rest of the staff with notes.
- Finally, we will discuss the Grand Staff, a theoretical staff consisting of eleven lines.
- Watch what happens when we eliminate the middle line - we end up with two regular staves.

Measures and Time Signature

Three
Quarter (1/4) notes

- staff into measures.
- This staff has been split into two measures.
- Time signatures define the amount and type of notes that each measure contains.
- The first measure is in 4/4 time and the second measure is in 3/4 time.
- The first measure (4/4) contains four quarter notes.
- The second measure (3/4) contains three quarter notes.
- Next, we will discuss non-quarter-note time signatures.
- 6/8 time contains six eighth notes.
- 3/2 time contains three half notes.
- This chart displays all of the time signatures that we discussed.

Bars and Time Signature

Three
Crotchets

- Vertical black bars called bar lines divide the staff into bars (or "measures").
- This staff has been split into two bars.
- Time signatures define the amount and type of notes that each bar contains.
- The first bar is in 4/4 time and the second bar is in 3/4 time.
- The first bar (4/4) contains four crotchets.
- The second bar (3/4) contains three crotchets.
- Next, we will discuss non-crotchet time signatures.
- 6/8 time contains six quavers.
- 3/2 time contains three minims.
- This chart displays all of the time signatures that we discussed.

Interval Inversion

Perfect fifth: B to F#

- The result is a perfect fifth: B to F#.
- Perfect intervals will always invert to other perfect intervals.
- Fourths and fifths will invert to each other.
- Let's invert a major third: C to E.
- Move the lowest note an octave higher.
- The result is a minor sixth: E to C.
- Let's invert a minor third: E to G.
- Move the lowest note an octave higher.
- The result is a major sixth: G to E.
- Minor intervals and major intervals invert to each other.
- Thirds and sixths invert to each other.
- Let's invert a major seventh: C to B.
